CHAPTER IV

ADMINISTRATION AND REPRESENTATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 12 - Board of Directors

The company shall be managed by a Board of Directors of seven to fifteen members, as determined by the general meeting.

The Board of Directors is appointed by using lists presented by the shareholders, in which the candidates, for a number not greater than fifteen, are listed by a progressive number. Lists must be deposited at the company's registered offices within the deadline provided by the applicable regulations.

Lists may be submitted only by those shareholders who, alone or together with others, hold a number of shares bearing voting rights representing at least 2,5% of the capital with voting rights in the ordinary general meeting or the different percentage determined by Consob regulation.

In order to prove legal ownership of the number of shares necessary to present lists, the shareholders must deposit at the company's registered office, together with the list, the appropriate documentation reporting the identity of the shareholder or of the shareholders who presented the lists and the percentage of shares comprehensively held at the moment of presenting the lists, as well as the certificate stating the ownership of the shares as of the date on which the list was deposited at the company's registered office. The certificate can be received also afterwards but in any case within the deadline provided by the applicable regulations.

No single shareholder, nor shareholders belonging to a group, as defined by art. 2359 of the Italian Civil Code or linked by shareholders' agreement whose object are the shares of the company, can present or vote, even through third party intermediaries or through trust companies, more than one list. Each candidate can be present in one list only, otherwise he will be considered ineligible.

The presented lists, signed by the shareholders that presented them, must be integrated by an exhaustive informative about the personal and professional qualifications of the candidates.

Together with each list, declarations should be deposited in which every candidate accepts the candidature and attests, under his own responsibility, that no grounds exist for his ineligibility and incompatibility, that he possess the requirements, if any, requested by the applicable law for the members of the Board of Directors, as well as the indication of the possible suitability to qualify himself as independent, in accordance with the codes of conduct provided by the managing companies of regulated markets or by professional associations.

Each list consisting of at least three candidates should contain and expressly indicate the candidature of at least two subjects having the features of independence required for the Statutory Auditors by art. 148, section 3, of the Legislative Decree no. 58 of February 24, 1998, in case the general meeting should decide to fix the members of the Board of Directors to be elected in a number greater than seven, pursuant to art. 147 ter, subsection 4, of the Legislative Decree no. 58/1998 ("Independent Directors ex art. 147 ter").

The lists consisting of at least three candidates must be formed in such a way as to ensure that the gender less represented in the list would reach at least the minimum number provided by the temporary regulations in force.

Lists that do not comply with the foregoing provisions shall be deemed as not having ever been submitted.

The Board of Directors shall be elected as follows:

- a) from the list that has obtained the greatest number of votes (List of Majority) shall be appointed, on the basis of the progressive order in which the candidates appear on said list, a number of members equal to the total number of directors to be elected, as previously fixed by the general meeting, except one.
- b) from the list - linked in no manner, not even indirectly, with the shareholders that presented or voted the List of Majority - that obtained the second greatest number of votes (List of Minority), shall be elected a director in person of the candidate indicated with the first number of said list.

The lists that have not received a percentage of votes at least equal to half of that requested by this article for presenting the lists are not taken into consideration for the election of the members of the Board of Directors.

If only one list is presented, the general meeting deliberates with relative majority and, in case the presented list has obtained the majority, the candidates of this list, on the basis of the progressive order, up to the number fixed by the general meeting, are elected as members of the Board. If, as a result of the application of the foregoing rules, the number of Independent Directors ex art. 147 ter, as provided by the applicable regulations, is not elected, then, up to the minimum number required, instead of the last one and, if necessary, of the next-to-last one elected in the Majority List, the first and, if necessary, the second Independent Director ex art. 147 ter indicated in this list shall be considered elected.

If, as a result of the application of the foregoing rules, a gender should be less represented than what provided by the temporary regulations in force, the candidates belonging to the gender less represented appointed in progressive order from the Majority List shall be considered elected, up to the minimum number required, instead of the last elected candidates in the same list belonging to the gender more represented. If, as a consequence of such replacement, the minimum number of independent directors ex art. 147 ter should not be reached, the candidates belonging to the gender less represented shall be considered elected instead of the last elected candidates in the list belonging to the gender more represented not having the criteria of Independent Director ex art. 147 ter, so as to allow the composition of the board in compliance with law provisions.

If it is not possible to proceed, in all or in part, to the appointment of directors according to the procedures described above, the general meeting shall decide on the basis of a relative majority vote, in compliance with the rules in force, including the rule that guarantees the gender balance.

The foregoing provisions do not apply to the general meetings that have to elect Board members as a consequence of earlier termination from the office of Board members or as a consequence of the deliberation of the increase of the number of members of the Board of Directors. In such cases, the general meeting shall decide on the basis of a relative majority vote, in compliance with the rules in force, including the rule that guarantees the gender balance.

In case of replacement of directors, pursuant to art. 2386, 1st paragraph of the civil code, the appointment shall be made in compliance with the rules in force, including the rule that guarantees the gender balance.

The general meeting, at the moment of the appointment, fixes the duration of the office, which could not be superior to three fiscal years; the Board members so appointed expire at the date of the general meeting called for the approval of the annual report relative to the last fiscal year of their office and are re-eligible.

Should, as a result of resignations or other reasons, the majority of the Board members appointed by the general meeting, cease to serve in office, the entire Board of Directors shall be deemed to have resigned and the remaining Board members shall call a general meeting of shareholders as soon as possible for the appointment of a new Board of Directors.

Article 13 - Company officers

The Board of Directors, shall appoint from amongst its members, a Chairman, if not already appointed by the general meeting of shareholders and, if proper, one or more Vice-Chairmen. The Board may also delegate its powers, excluded those reserved explicitly by law to the competence of the Board, to the Chairman, to the Vice-Chairmen and to one or more managing directors, determining the contents of and the limits to such delegated powers and, if appropriate, the manner of exercising them.

The Board of Directors may appoint a secretary, who may not be a Board member.

Article 14 - Meetings of the Board of Directors

Board meetings may also be held using telephone or video conferencing systems, provided that all the attendees can be identified and are in a position to follow the debate, take part in real time in the discussion on the items placed on the agenda as well as receive, transmit and view documents; if all the foregoing conditions are met, the Board meeting in question shall be deemed to have been held at the venue at which the Chairman and the secretary who draws up the minutes, to be signed by both, are physically present.

Save in the case of urgency, Board meetings shall be called by written notice forwarded at least five days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting.

Board meetings shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or, if absent or otherwise prevented from doing so, by the longest serving Vice-Chairman, and in the case of parity of tenure, by the Vice-Chairman oldest in age. In default of all of the above, the Board meeting may be chaired by any company director appointed for such purpose by the Board itself.

Article 15 - Board resolutions

The Board of Directors shall be empowered to pass resolutions only at Board meetings attended by a majority of the company directors who are in office. Resolutions shall be deemed to be valid, if passed by an absolute majority of the Board members present at the Board meeting; in the case of an equal number of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Meeting shall prevail.

CHAPTER V

BOARD OF STATUTORY AUDITORS

Article 22 - Statutory Auditors

The Board of Statutory Auditors shall consist of three regular auditors and two or three alternate auditors. Minority shareholders may appoint one regular auditor and one or two alternate auditors.

The Board of Auditors is appointed on the basis of lists submitted by shareholders, in which candidates, for a number not greater than the members to elect, are listed by a progressive number.

Each list is made up of two sections: one for candidates proposed as regular auditors and the other for candidates proposed as alternate auditors.

Each list must contain at least one candidate proposed as regular auditor and one proposed as alternate auditor.

Lists may be submitted only by shareholders who, on their own or together with others, hold a global number of shares bearing voting rights, that represent at least the percentage required pursuant to the preceding article 12 for the presentation of the lists for the election of the Board of Directors.

Any shareholder or any group of shareholders, as defined by of section 2359 of the Italian Civil Code, or any shareholder who is linked to other shareholders by a shareholders' agreement whose object are the shares of the company, may not present or vote, not even through third party intermediaries or through trust companies, more than one list. Each candidate can be presented in one list only, otherwise he will be considered ineligible.

No list may include a candidate who fails to meet requirements of professional integrity and competency imposed by applicable regulations. Auditors may be re-appointed.

For the intents and purposes of article 1(3) of Decree of the Italian Justice Ministry, no. 162 of 30 March 2000:

a) the commercial sectors closely linked to the company's core business include:

- sectors pertaining to the manufacture and marketing of cement, lime, any and all other water-based binders and construction materials in general;

- sectors pertaining to plant and installations for cement works;

b) the disciplines closely linked to the company's core business include:

- construction techniques, applied chemistry, applied mechanics and technical physics;

- commercial law, tax law and labour law, as well as general and corporate economics, accounting and related disciplines, and corporate finance.

The lists submitted must be lodged with the company's registered offices within the deadline provided by the applicable regulations, accompanied by :

a) the information about the identity of the shareholder or of the shareholders that have presented the lists, with the indication of the percentage of shareholding comprehensively held and a certificate stating the ownership of the shares as of the date on which the lists are available at the company's headquarters. The certificate can be received also afterwards but in any case within the deadline provided by the applicable regulations ;

b) a declaration of the shareholders other than those that hold, also jointly, a shareholding of control or of relative majority, attesting the absence of links with the latter ones, pursuant to art. 144-quinquies of the Consob Regulation n. 11971 of May 14, 1999, and successive modifications;

c) an exhaustive informative about the personal and professional qualifications of the candidates as well as a declaration of the candidates stating the fulfilment of the requirements imposed by law and the acceptance of their candidature.

The lists consisting of at least three candidates, computing both sections, shall include in each section, if consisting of at least two candidates, candidates belonging to different genders.

Lists that do not comply with the foregoing provisions shall be deemed as not lodged.

Each candidate shall also enclose a list of the offices as director or auditor hold in other companies.

If on the expiration date stated for the presentation of lists, only one list or only lists made by shareholders linked among themselves, as defined by art. 144-quinquies of Consob Regulation n. 11971 of May 14, 1999, and successive modifications, have been lodged, then further lists may be lodged within the deadline specified for this purpose by the above-mentioned Consob Regulation and the minimum percentage required for the presentation of lists is reduced to the half. The procedure for the election of auditors, shall be as follows:

1. Two regular auditors and one alternate auditor shall be appointed from the list receiving the higher number of votes at the general meeting (List of Majority), following the progressive order in which the candidates were listed in the two sections of the list.

2. The remaining regular auditor and two alternate auditors shall be appointed from the list - not linked in any manner, not even indirectly, with the shareholders which have presented or voted the List of Majority -receiving the second highest number of votes at the general meeting (List of Minority), in the progressive order in which the candidate were listed in the two sections of the list. If not all the two alternate auditors reserved to the minority are elected, the second alternate auditor reserved to the minority is appointed, on the basis of the progressive order, from the section for the candidates to the regular auditor of the List of Minority and, in case no name is specified in such section, he is appointed from the section of the candidates to the regular auditor of the list which has obtained in the general meeting the third highest number of votes, on the basis of the progressive order of this third list.

In case of equal number of votes among the minority lists, the candidates of the list that has been lodged by the shareholders in possession of the bigger shareholding or, subordinately, by the higher number of shareholders shall be elected.

The Board of Auditors shall be presided over by the regular auditor appointed from the minority list.

In the case where only one list is submitted, the general meeting shall vote by relative majority, and, should the submitted list obtain a majority of the votes, all the candidates on such list shall be deemed to have been elected. In such case, chairmanship of the Board of Auditors shall lie with the first candidate of the list proposed as a regular auditor.

If, as a result of the application of the foregoing rules, a gender should be less represented than what provided by the temporary regulations in force, the candidates belonging to the gender less represented appointed in progressive order from the Majority List shall be elected, up to the minimum number required, instead of the last elected candidates in the same list belonging to the gender more represented.

In the case where it is not possible, in whole or in part, to appoint the Board of Auditors in compliance with the foregoing procedure, the general meeting shall vote by simple majority, in compliance with the rules in force, including the rule that guarantees the gender balance.

If a member of the Board of Auditors ceases to meet the requirements for his office as imposed under the law and these articles of association, such member shall be deemed to cease to serve as a member of the said Board.

A regular auditor appointed from the List of Majority who ceases to serve on the Board of Auditors shall be replaced by the alternate auditor appointed from the same list of the outgoing regular auditor; a regular auditor nominated by the minority who ceases to serve on the Board of Auditors shall be replaced by the alternate auditor appointed from the minority list with priority given to the alternates out of the List of Minority and on the basis of the progressive order according to which are listed in the same, in compliance, where required, with the regulations that guarantee the gender balance. If, as a consequence of such replacement the gender balance fails to be ensured, the board of directors shall promptly call the shareholders' meeting pursuant to art. 2401, 1st paragraph, second sentence, of the civil code.

The foregoing provisions pertaining to the election of the Board of Auditors shall not apply whether the general meeting is bound by the law to appoint auditors in office and/or alternate auditors, in order to complete the Board of Statutory Auditors, due to replacement or vacancy of former Auditors. In such cases, the general meeting shall vote by simple majority, being understood that, in case of appointment or replacement of statutory auditors appointed from the minority lists, the principle of the mandatory representation of the minorities has to be complied with by the general shareholders' meeting, in compliance with the rules in force, including the rule that guarantees the gender balance.

The Board of Auditors may, by giving notice thereof to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, call a general meeting of shareholders, a meeting of the Board of Directors and a meeting of the executive committee.

Such powers of calling meetings may be exercised individually by each member of the Board of Statutory Auditors, except the power to call the general meeting of shareholders, which may only be exercised by at least two members of the Board of Auditors.

Board of Auditors' meetings may also be held using video and/or telephone conferencing systems, provided that all the members who attend the meeting can be identified and that they are able to take part in the audit activity and to discuss in real time the issues of the agenda, as well as receive, transmit and view documents. In the case where all the foregoing conditions are met, the Board of Auditors' meeting is deemed to have been held at the place of convocation of the board, where at least one auditor must be physically present.
